NIV

To breakout is to run away, run off, escape, and break free from something or some people, to getaway, or take to flight.

To breakout is to part or divide by force and violence, as a solid substance from an evil lifestyle or habit that is injurious to your relationship with God and man. It is to rend apart from all ungodliness and evil association.

To breakout is to violate, as a contract or promise, either by a positive act contrary to the promise, or by neglect or non-fulfillment. You must breakout from all evil covenants with the devil and occult. Cut all ties with any cult you are involved with. Violate every law that they gave you, as you surrender to Jesus Christ to be saved and upheld. Submit yourself for deliverance prayers so you can be completely free to serve the Lord.

To Breakout is to infringe or violate, as a law, or any moral obligation, either by a positive act or by an omission of what is required of you by your own evil group or associates. Violate all ancestral, traditional laws that are contrary to the teachings of the Bible. You can't be subject to two kingdoms at the same time. If it is God follow Him, if it is the spirit of your ancestors you want follow, follow them. I counsel you to follow Jesus Christ faithfully.

To breakout is to stop, to interrupt, to cause to cease, as, to break conversation, or a manner of speech. You have to breakout from gossiping, lying, slander, deception, fraud, and all manner of rough and evil language now.

To breakout is to separate, to part, as, to break company of friendship. There are some people you must separate from to be what God called you in Christ Jesus to become. Some are weak in faith and commitment because of the wrong company they are keeping.

To breakout is to separate, as, to break up a company. It is to disband a group. Separate from the wrong people you are close to and disband your close association or union with them. Why live with a woman or man you are not married to? Why be unequally yoked with an unbeliever? Disband, separate and break evil friendships and unions and reform your life to the glory of God.

To breakout is to dissolve any union. It is to break off a connection with a particular person or group of persons who have been of negative influence on you, or have brought you a lot of pain and misfortune in the past. Until Lot left Abraham, Abraham couldn't see all that God has prepared for him. There are some people in your life that must leave you for you to enter into the rest of God and advance in your life to become whom God destined you to be. Do not keep relationship that God desperately wants to kill in your life. This is the time to identify these relationships and kill them.

To breakout is to cause to abandon, to reform or cause to reform, as, to break ill habits or practices. You must break from all evil habits and reform your life to measure up to the standard of God. Abandon smoking for it is injurious to your health. Abandon drinking of alcohol for it is a money and life waster. It brings disgrace. Abandon all your immoral relationships and stay faithful to your spouse. Abandon premarital sex and be loyal to Jesus Christ your Saviour. Abandon the life of malice and bitterness and reform to become a forgiving person who keeps no record of wrongs. Break all evil habits and character that mars your testimony in Christ. Determine that you will be better this New Year.

CONCLUSION

Breakout of evil and enter a better and sweeter relationship with God. Submit to God and His Word today and live your life to please Him and it will be well with you and your family. For when a man's ways please the Lord, God makes the man's enemies to be at peace with him. There are so many things that must be thrown away from your life to bring you to the place of destiny where honour and glory is waiting for you.

Give your life to Jesus Christ and serve Him with all your life. Determine to follow Christ all the days of your life. Draw close, daily, to God in faithful communion through prayer and the reading of the word of God. Be committed to a Bible believing and charismatic church, learn, grow, and serve with the brethren, and you will be greatly blessed in Jesus Christ.
